Ötztal Nature Park

EXPLORE THE HUGE VARIETY OF ÖTZTAL

The Ötztal Nature Park comprises all environmentally protected areas in Ötztal. Covering some 500 km², the Ötztal Nature Park is Tirol's second biggest and Austria's third biggest in size.

The main aims of the Nature Park are to protect nature, preserve unspoilt landscapes, increase recreational values and promote scientific and cultural research in the region.

IN ADDITION TO THE NATURE PARK HOUSE AND ITS MULTIMEDIA NATURE EXPERIENCE EXHIBITION, THERE ARE THE FOLLOWING INFORMATION SPOTS IN ÖTZTAL:

- Ambach/Infopoint Ötztal: exhibition incl. huge relief of the valley
- Niederthai and Gries: freely standing info panels at the car parks
- Sölden/Adventure Mile: info panels on „Sölden's Silent Part“
- Obergurgl/Hohe Mut Alm: „Glacier, Climate, Research“ exhibition
- Vent/Parish House: „High Alpine Nature & Culture“ exhibition

FOR FREE

Worth Seeing in Ötztal

© Ötzi Village, Umhausen

ÖTZI VILLAGE, BIRDS OF PREY PARK, MUSEUMS & WOOD CARVING

Enjoy a wonderful day of adventure, traveling back in time at the Archaeological Outdoor Park that gives an insight into everyday life and work of Stone Age Ötzi – The Iceman in Neolithic times.

Watch the spectacular bird shows performed in the Birds of Prey Park open-air arena located right next to the Ötzi Village. Traditional life and farm work can be explored at Ötztal's Local Heritage Museum. Picture exhibitions and paintings await you at the Museum in the Tower in Oetz.

Fans of precious wood carved objects are invited to admire a variety of hand-made nativity scenes and a lot more attractions.

In the Top Mountain Motorcycle Museum you get to know everything about motorcycle history and technology, showing 500 motorcycles from 150 manufacturers on 4300 m².

Public Bus Lines

DISCOVER TIROL'S LONGEST SIDE VALLEY BY PUBLIC BUS

Several bus stops make it easy to reach Ötztal's main attractions and highlights (bicycle transport available). Among the absolute must-sees are the scenic panoramic roads in high Alpine locations. The Timmelsjoch High Alpine Road is probably the most beautiful connection to neighboring Italy thanks to awe-inspiring views of the mountains and valleys. The Panoramic Glacier Road leads from the hustle and bustle of Sölden's village up to the mighty glacier snouts, offering awesome hairpin bends. Due to the breathtaking panorama, the road was chosen as filming location of the spectacular chase in the action thriller James Bond 007 - „Spectre“.
